

JOE LATHAM

COMEDIAN BIO

Having worked with the British Broadcasting Corporation and MTV, developing comedy scripts, sketches, and full seasons of TV shows, Joe now writes jokes for his own audiences (how selfish...) in his own hilarious stand up comedy.

Having hosted TV shows, and appeared on the BBC, ITV and Channel 4 TV shows in the UK Joe moved to the USA to chase the American dream of... giving it all up for a girl.

The act writes itself from there, with comparisons and observations since his move 'across the pond', adjusting to life in the US, and marrying an American, which offers a perspective many audiences did not know they needed. Its hilarious, high energy and wont offend! (well he can say pretty much anything in a British accent and no one will even notice, it sounds so polite)

Currently making a name for himself as a stand up in the US, Joe reached the final of Florida's Funniest Comedian in 2022 (top 10), and has recently shared the stage with America's Got Talent legends Greg Morton and Tom Cotter, as well as Kevin Farley (F is for Family), and Hans Kim (Kill Tony).

Joes hilarious material, unique perspective and a charisma (that you probably would not expect from your typical English gent) has been a hit at clubs and theaters around the country ... (although it might just be his accent and the way he pronounces 'ALUMINIUM')
